WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair tonight; Saturday increasing cloudiness; light variable winds.

DEATH OF MR. NEALE.—Mr. Charles F. Neale, who had been a sufferer from consumption for some time, died at his home on Duke street, near Columbus, last night. The deceased had managed to keep about until last Saturday, when he attempted to walk from his home. He proceeded a few squares, but grew so weak that he had to be conveyed to his home. He took to his bed from which he was destined never to arise. Mr. Neale was the only son of the late E. C. Neale and a grandson of the late Charles L. Neale, who in 1801 was Captain of the Night Watch and later a member of the Common Council from the First ward and Market Street. The deceased followed the calling of his father and grandfather in the stone and marble business, and was agent of the Alexandria Marble Works, corner Duke and Columbus streets. He was good-natured and companionable and had many friends and acquaintances. He was of a delicate physique and during the past few years of his life battled with the insidious malady which eventually caused his death. The deceased was a member of the Hydrantion Fire Company, the Young Men's Society, Lyceum and the Alexandria Divisor, A. O. H.

FEDERAL JURIES.—The following names have been drawn for the grand and petit juries to serve at the next term of the United States Court, to be held in this city on January 6.

Kabe, Thomas F. Morrison, George E. French, H. C. Eddies, George A. Walker, Dr. F. O. Mookler, James R. Smith, Thomas P. Keith, Willie E. Robertson, G. C. Calvin, Dallas Farr and George Wright.

PETIT JURY.—John H. Rosler, Samuel Diener, J. J. Weaver, V. B. Hardwick, Benjamin D. Daves, Hazelwood Kemp, A. M. Johnson, Ezzert A. Thompson, W. A. Mitchell, W. E. Rowie, G. M. Goodman, R. E. Macey, Frank Walker, Phillips H. W. E. Smith, J. A. B. McDowell, William Warren, James Hunter, Weston Bristow, H. B. Cameron, W. E. Guthridge and Joseph Levy.

RIVER NOTES.—The steam yacht Augusta, belonging to Mr. August Colmes, is at the wharf of Wm. A. Moore's Sons and will be overhauled during the winter.

The Suez wharf, about fifty miles below this city, was almost completely destroyed by the ice moving down the river Tuesday afternoon. The wharf was owned by the late Jas. Q. Siff, the young man who was shot by Herbert Marx, and whether it will be rebuilt is not known.

The Weems Line steamers Sue and Westmoreland have been laid up for the winter at Skinner's shipyard in Baltimore. The Sue was taken off the Rappahannock and Patuxent route Tuesday, and yesterday the Westmoreland arrived from her last trip for the season on the Potomac river. Five steamers are now running on the Weems Line winter schedule.

FINED FIVE DOLLARS EACH.—Five negroes, under the influence of liquor, attempted to paint King street red yesterday evening by singing, cursing and acting in a disorderly manner generally. Word was sent to the station house and Officers Mayhew and Davis started in pursuit of the ruffians. They succeeded in netting all of them, and this morning they were brought before the Mayor. They were all as black as the ace of spades, and in their defense it was urged that they were perfectly sober, well-behaved and were singing a hymn,—"The Holy City"—when the misdeeds of the law unceremoniously descended upon them. They were fined five dollars each, and if they fail to pay will be put on the chain gang.

FUNERALS.—The funeral of the late John A. Mills who was drowned from Reardon's wharf Tuesday night last, took place at 9:30 o'clock this morning from his late residence, 114 Prince street. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Father Ahern, of St. Mary's Church, and the interment was made in Bethel Cemetery.

The funeral of Mrs. Margaret Johnston, wife of Commonwealth's Attorney E. Johnston, who died at her home last Tuesday night, took place this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The remains were brought here and interred in the Presbyterian Cemetery.

CHRISTMAS CELEBRATIONS.—The Christmas entertainment of Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church Sunday school was held at that church last night, and was well attended notwithstanding the unpropitious weather. The programme included musical and literary selections, after which Santa Claus appeared and distributed candy and other favors among the little ones. The affair was a success in every way. The Sunday schools of the Second Presbyterian, Methodist, Protestant, Baptist, and Southern Methodist Episcopal churches will have their Christmas entertainments tonight. Each of them has arranged interesting programmes for the occasion.

PREPARING FOR THE NEW BRIDGE.—The Potomac Railroad Company has a force of men at work demolishing the buildings at Jackson City, and that place is about to be obliterated. The railroad company purchased this property for use in connection with the construction of the new bridge across the Potomac. A track is being laid across the country road just south of the Long Bridge.

THE WEATHER.—The rainy weather of yesterday continued until after midnight, when the wind changed to the northwest and the morning broke with a clear sky and a lower temperature. The rainfall at times during the night was heavy, and after dark but few people ventured on the streets.

Stops the Cough and Works on the Cold.
Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No Cure, No Pay. Price 25 cents.

A FAMOUS STEAMER FOUNDERS AT SEA.—The P. Dougherty Company, of Baltimore, received a telegram yesterday dated Philadelphia from Capt. Frank Robinson, of the barge Josephine, stating that the vessel had broken in two and was abandoned on Winter Quarter Lightship, Christmas Day. The crew was picked up by the tug Ivanhoe and landed at the Quaker City. The Ivanhoe was towing the Josephine, loaded with piles, and the barge Senator from Mobjack Bay, to Philadelphia. The Josephine was once the side wheel steamer George Leary, the queen of the Chesapeake, and showed her heels to anything afloat on the Chesapeake and Potomac, while her luxurious appointments and speed were the talk of first-class passengers between the northern and southern States. The George Leary was a side-wheel steamer, built in Brooklyn in 1864. She was of the old type of steamboats, with a low and long narrow bow. She was 237 feet long and but 33 feet wide. The vessel was a palace when she was built and had a 14-knot speed. At first she ran on the Hudson river. Then she ran as an opposition to the Old Bay Line between Baltimore and Norfolk. Afterward the Bay Line purchased her. Later she ran on the Potomac between Washington, this city and Norfolk. Next she ran colored excursions on the Potomac. In 1890 she was bought by Mr. John Roney, of Baltimore, who stripped her and converted her into a lumber barge. Nothing remained of her old self but the bare yellow hull and a part of the saloon, on her stern, which was used as a cabin. She could carry 60,000 feet of lumber. Mr. Roney sold her to Robinson & Thorington, who sold her in November to the P. Dougherty Company. The vessel was not insured.

KING STREET PAVING.—City Engineer Duon, who by an ordinance of the City Council approved October 11, 1901, was appointed to make up and report what each piece of property on King street between Fairfax and Royal should be assessed with its proportionate share of the whole cost not exceeding two thirds thereof, has filed his report in accordance with that portion of section 33 of the city charter, which says: "The report of such appointment shall lie to the office of the City Auditor twenty days open to inspection by any person whose property it is proposed to charge with any such assessment." That this is necessary in only some few cases on the King street paving is gratifying, and no great delay is expected in collecting the bills as the work was done at the instance of the property owners. No chance, however, was taken, and step by step the whole matter has been proceeded with in strict conformity with the charter. The cost of the work, exclusive of W. A. and Mr. V. Railway's portion, is $2,640. The City Engineer finds $2,312.54 as the amount to be assessed against the city and property owners. Two thirds of $2,312.54 is $1,541.70 and this last amount is apportioned among the property owners. The report can be examined at the office of the City Auditor. Of course the difference between $2,640 and $2,312.54 is paid by the city.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—Oceola Tribe, I. O. E. M., assembled at the wigwam last night and elected the following officers to serve during the ensuing term: Prophet, Thos. Wannock; sachem, B. F. Bette; senior sagamore, C. R. Humphries; junior sagamore, C. M. Schwab; keeper of wampum, Geo. W. Dix; collector of wampum, C. C. Cuyler; chief of records, Chas. Nagel; chief of wigwam, John H. Dix. Committee—finance, Chas. Nagel, F. Schwab, A. Muller; widows and orphans, Geo. W. Dix, H. Sampson, Chas. Nagel, C. E. Evans and Thos. Wannock. On next meeting night the above officers will be installed and the appointive officers named.

IMPROVEMENTS AT FORT WASHINGTON.—Major Bickham, the constructing quartermaster in charge of the improvements at Fort Washington, is now preparing to lay board walks about the post grounds, the lumber for which is daily being conveyed to the fort by riverboats. About 25,000 feet of lumber will be used in the work, 15,000 feet of which consist of boards about three feet in length and the width of the walks. The work of laying the walks will be done by Messrs. Hutton & Parker, the contractor, and will be begun in a few days. It is expected the entire length of the walks will be completed by the early spring.

CAR DERAILED.—A flat car was derailed and thrown from its tracks and semi-overturned near the east end of the Wilkes street tunnel this morning. A shifting engine was engaged in placing a string of cars in the yard of the Ouse Manufacturing Company at the time when from some cause the gondola left the track. The car was thrown from its tracks, the latter leaving the track and turning partly around, while the car fell on its side a few feet from the rails. The car was later put on the track in a damaged condition and taken to the Southern Railway depot. A telegraph pole was partially carried away by the accident. No one was hurt.

THE ELECTRIC LIGHT PLANT.—The committee of light is discussing a plan for the removal of the electric light plant from its present site at the gas works to either the lot east of the city jail or to the northwestern section of the City Hall building. The committee plan the plant more centrally located than it is at present and think it would be better not to have it so near the gas works. It has been suggested that the plant be moved to the City Hall building the offices there could be located at much less expense than at present, and the committee have other reasons for a change. No definite plan has yet been adopted, however.

THE RIVER.—The river is now comparatively clear of ice, save here and there a mass of snow-packed icebergs drifts lazily with the tide. Navigation is untroubled without impediment and vessels are arriving and departing as usual. There is but one oyster boat at the dock, and her cargo is almost exhausted. More, however, are in the river and their arrival is expected nightly. Some oyster boats have passed up to Washington in tow during the past day or two.

SUIT FOR DIVORCE.—Eliza Creeks has instituted suit in Washington for a divorce from her husband, Thomas Creeks. The parties were married in this city July 6, 1899. The complainant alleges desertion and failure to contribute to her support.

Christmas comes but once a year, and when it comes it brings good cheer. But when it goes it gives us chills. Think of all the Christmas bills.

PERSONALS.—Lieut. and Mrs. Samuel L. Moore have returned, after a pleasant visit to Swarthmore, Pennsylvania, where they have been spending the Christmas holidays.

The Misses Marshall will entertain a large company at dinner tonight at the handsome residence of their father, Mr. John A. Marshall, on Wolfe street.

Miss Selma King gave a card party at her residence on south St. Asaph street last night. A number of guests were present and an enjoyable evening was spent.

Cap. George A. Mushbach continues critically ill at his residence on north Washington street.

Walter L. Yost, of Mount Airy, N. C., and Clarence N. Yost, of Philadelphia, are the guests of their father, Mr. P. M. Yost, superintendent of the Alexandria Knitting Mills, on Prince street.

Mrs. Nettie Donnelly-Drill will entertain the members of St. Mary's Church choir tonight at her home on Duke street.

Mr. D. J. N. Roney, of New York, is visiting relatives and friends in this city.

Mr. Augustus Butts today celebrated his 76th birthday. A number of his friends and nephews were present and so enjoyable time was experienced. Mr. Butts is an old and well-known citizen, and his many friends and acquaintances hope there will be many more birthdays to his.

The residence of Capt. G. A. Mushbach continues unimproved.

NO DISCHARGES.—An order for a reduction of the force of the Washington navy yard had recently been issued and it was feared a number of men would lose their places. Mr. E. E. Key, in interest of a number of Virginians employed in the yard, visited the Navy Department yesterday and made an arrangement by which the men instead of being discharged will lose so many days a month until the new navy appropriation becomes available. All, therefore, will retain their places.

WAGON STRUCK BY A CAR.—While the wagon of the Episcopal High School in charge of Mr. Stuart, prior of that institution, was being driven up King street this morning, it was struck by the 11 o'clock electric train for Washington. The accident took place at the corner of King and Alfred streets. The wagon and harness were considerably damaged but the occupant and horse fortunately escaped injury.

When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has developed, it will prevent the attack. This should be borne in mind and a bottle of the Cough Remedy kept at hand ready for instant use as soon as these symptoms appear. For sale by Richard Gibson, druggist.

LOCAL BREVITIES.
Four lodgers were at the station house last night.

M. L. Robinson Jr., son of Marcus L. Robinson, of this city, was appointed yesterday to a position in the Spanish Claims Commission Bureau in Washington.

Marriage licenses were issued in Washington yesterday to James Washington and Emma Elizabeth Johnson, both of Falls Church; William E. Rex and Willie V. Michael, both of Augusta county; Wilbert A. Shook and Polly A. Powell, both of Elkton; and London C. Terry, of Richmond, and Helen M. Lucy, of Goodland county.

The statement in a Washington paper to the effect that the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company was about to add vast improvements to their wharf and other property here is news to the local community. The demands of trade require such improvements this enterprising company would make them, but at present there is no need for them.

A collision between a freight and passenger train at Fredericksburg about nine o'clock this morning caused some delay in the running of trains between this city and Richmond. The tracks, however, were soon cleared and traffic has been resumed. The railroad officials here say the damage was not serious.

A marriage license was granted today by John S. Beach, clerk of court, to Mr. Alfred T. Hiner, of Loudon, England, and Miss Isabel Kate Stevens, of Northamptonshire, county, Va. The couple declared their intention of making Washington their future home.

A meeting of the A. O. H. will be held tonight to take action on the death of Mr. C. F. Neale.

Two of the Columbia gas company's horses are sick and out of service.
